

Santa Fe Splinters by Joseph Weidel, 1940

Vol.	DESCRIPTION
1	The AT&SF Railway System, Excerpts From The President's Annual Reports to Stockholders With Special Reference to The Construction History of System Lines, 1873-1916.
2	The AT&SF Railway System, Excerpts From The President's Annual Reports to Stockholders With Special Reference to The Construction History of System Lines, 1917-1940 and Directors and Officers 1873-1940.
3	The Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railway Company – The Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railway Company of Texas – The Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railway Company (of Mexico), No. 1.
4	The Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railway Company – The Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railway Company of Texas – The Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railway Company (of Mexico) – Reports Only No. 2
5	The Santa Fe, Prescott & Phoenix Railway Company, Other Lines South of Ash Fork and The Grand Canyon Railway Company. No. 1
6	The Santa Fe, Prescott & Phoenix Railway Company, Other Lines South of Ash Fork and The Grand Canyon Railway Company. No. 2
7	GC&SF Railway Company and Subsidiaries. No. 1
8	GC&SF Railway Company and Subsidiaries. No. 2
9	The San Francisco & San Joaquin Valley Railway Company and Other Lines North of Bakersfield. No. 1
10	The San Francisco & San Joaquin Valley Railway Company and Other Lines North of Bakersfield. No. 2
11	Kansas City to Chicago – ATSF Railroad Company in Chicago – Chicago, Santa Fe & California Railway Company – Chicago, Santa Fe & California Railway Company of Iowa – The Mississippi River Railroad & Toll Bridge Company – The Sibley Bridge Company – Sections 1, 2 and 3 – No. 1
12	Kansas City to Chicago – ATSF Railroad Company in Chicago – Chicago, Santa Fe & California Railway Company – Chicago, Santa Fe & California Railway Company of Iowa – The Mississippi River Railroad & Toll Bridge Company – The Sibley Bridge Company – Sections 5, 6 and 7 – No. 2
13	Two Decades Preceding the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad Company – The New Mexico & Arizona Frontier Days From The Beginning of the War with Mexico Until the Close of the Civil War 1846-1865, No. 1
14	Two Decades of the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad Company – The Western Division from the Congressional Act Of July 27, 1866 Until the Financial Plan and Agreement to Extend into California at the End of 1881, No. 2
15	Two Years of Gould and Huntington Influence in the Affairs of the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad Company – The Western Division from the Halt at the Colorado River Until the Contract for the Purchase of the Southern Pacific from Mojave to Needles and the Arrangement for a Trackage Right from Mojave to San Francisco, No. 3
16	Two Decades of Atlantic & Pacific Railroad Company – Missouri, Central and California Divisions – From the Congressional Act of July 27, 1866 Until the Arrival of the Track at Sapulpa, October 12, 1886, No. 4

17	Some of the Struggles of the Early Settlers in Kansas and C.K. Holliday's Task of Organizing and Constructing ATSF Railroad Across the State of Kansas From Atchison to Colorado State Line, Completed December 28, 1872, No. 1
18	Some of the Struggles of the Early Settlers in Kansas and C.K. Holliday's Task of Organizing and Constructing ATSF Railroad Across the State of Kansas From Atchison to Colorado State Line, Completed December 28, 1872. Included is a Chapter Relating to Leavenworth, Lawrence & Galveston Railroad Company, No. 2
19	The Extension of the ATSF by its Subsidiaries From Kansas State Line to Leadville 1873-1880, No. 3
20	The Extension of the ATSF Railroad by its Subsidiaries From La Junta to Santa Fe, El Paso, Deming and Silver City, 1877-1884. No. 4
21	The Sonora System of the ATSF Railroad From Benson, Arizona to Nogales and Guaymas, Mexico 1880-1882. No. 5
22	The Eastern Oklahoma Railway Company – Short View of the Transition from the Close of the Old Company's Original Construction Program in 1888 to the Resumption of Constructing New Lines by the New Company After 1898 – The Indians and the Indian Territory – The Kansas, Oklahoma Central & Southwestern Railway Company – The Reconnaissance Surveys for The Eastern Oklahoma Railway Company. No. 1
23	The Eastern Oklahoma Railway Company – The Construction of the Lines from Guthrie to Pawnee and from Newkirk to Pauls Valley. No. 2
24	The Eastern Oklahoma Railway Company – Correspondence Between James Dun and Other Engineers – Lines not Constructed by The Eastern Oklahoma Railway Company but Acquired from Sundry Other Companies by Purchase. No. 3
25	Early Surveys – Whipple, Blickensderfer, Wells, Baldwin, Schoff, Ropes, Booker, Jones, Smith – The Pecos River Railroad Company – The Pecos Valley Railroad Company – The Pecos Valley & Northeastern Railway Company – The Pecos & Northern Texas Railway Company (Amarillo to Texico)
26	Surveys for The Eastern Railway Company of New Mexico – Surveys Pertaining to the Possible use of The Chicago Rock Island & Pacific Railway – Surveys from Sulzbacher to Vaughn and fort Sumner. No. 1
27	The Eastern Railway Company of New Mexico – Reports and Correspondence Between General Officers Dealing with the Plans for and the Construction of the Line from Rio Puerco to Texico, New Mexico. No. 2
28	The Eastern Railway Company of New Mexico – Correspondence Between Chief Engineers – Reasons for the Original Construction of the Santa Fe Across the Raton and Glorieta Mountains – The Colmor Cutt-Off. No. 3
29	The ATSF Railway Company – Lines South of Barstow – Charters – Brief Construction History and Other Data. Compiled by E.E. Peckahm.
30	Reconnaissances, Preliminary and Location Surveys for a Connection Between The Pecos & Northern Texas Railway and Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe Railway from Texico on the Former to Brownwood on the Latter Via Plainview, Floydada, Dickens, Spur Hamilton, Anson and Abilene. 1888, 1904 and 1906 – Lines Not Constructed – Phillip Smith, Reconnaissances, 1888 – J.V. Key Reconnaissances, 1904 – F.H. Mudge, Reconnaissances, 1904 – F.M. Jones, Location, 1906. No. 1

31	The Location and Construction of The Pecos & Northern Texas Railway North of Lubbock – The Line from Canyon City to Plainview – The Extension from Plainview to Lubbock – The Branch from Plainview to Floydada – The Location of the Proposed Line from Mexico to Plainview. No. 2
32	The Location of the Adopted Line of The Pecos & Northern Texas Railway from Coleman to Texico – Reconnaissances from Abilene to Temple and Weatherford to Dickens – An Examination of The Texas Central with a View to its Possible Purchase by the Santa Fe. No. 3
33	A Few of the Incidents which Occurred During the Construction of The Pecos & Northern Texas Railway from Lubbock to Coleman. – G.W. Harris, Chief Engineer of Construction – The Outstanding Cooperation of C.W. Post – Why Lubbock did not become a Division Point – the Dividing Line at Sweetwater – The Town sites of Slaton and Tuscola. No. 4
34	The Suspension of Construction on The Pecos & Northern Texas Railway of the Line from Lubbock to Texico – Some Brief Remarks Relating to the Eventual Construction of the Closing Gap of the road from the Gulf to the Pacific Coast - -Brief Abstracts Relating to Other High Plains Lines – Growth and Cooperate History of the Santa Fe – Foreign Immigration to Develop the Atchison Land Grant – Miscellaneous Matters
Index	Index

Supplements
A	Correspondence and Contract Relating to Sale of Mojave Line – Southern Pacific – Lease of Sonora Line – Texas & Pacific Railway – Land Grants – Value of AT&SF Land Grant – Los Angeles Terminal Railway – Proposed Los Angeles-Salt Lake Line – Los Angeles & Salt Lake Railroad – Grand Canyon – Water Supply to Grand Canyon – Hearst Property-Grand View Point – Allen Manvel.
B	Northwestern Pacific Railroad – Indian Lands in Oklahoma, History – Origin of the “Katy” System – Early Development of the Santa Fe Transcontinental Line – Early development of Frisco Railroad, Including its Association with the Santa Fe – Automatic Train Control – Red Rock Bridge – Las Vegas Hot Springs Co. – History of Divisions, as of 12/31/1945 – A&P Receivership Terminated – SFP Acquired Title of A&P – History of the Illinois River Bridge – Original Outline, Chicago to Kansas City Construction – Sibley Bridge - Expenditures at Ft. Madison due to Building Koekuk Dam – Ft. Madison and Sibley Bridges – Report of Committee Relative to Building a Line from Kansas City to Chicago – Agreement of 10/18/1889 with Oregon Improvement Co. covering sale of Steamship “City of Topeka.” – “When the Santa Fe Entered California” – Report of examination of a route from Deming, NM to Victor CA – Relating to purchase of Atlantic & Pacific RR – Phoenix & Eastern RR – Santa Fe passenger train schedule effective May 22, 1892.
C	Notes on New Mexico’s mining history – History of development of the Dawson Coal Field – Abo Pass – Notes relating to building of the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad along the 35 th Parallel Route – Denver & Rio Grande Railway, Excerpt from “Narrow Gauge Railroads in America”. – Denver & Rio Grande Railway Construction – History of the New Mexico Central Railway – History of the Belen Cut Off – Present and former routes of the Santa Fe trail – Early day account of Santa Fe in Oklahoma – Building the Raton Tunnels – Story of early days of A&P, now Coast Lines & Santa Fe Prescott & Phoenix – U.S. Indian Bureau and Indians – Building the Galveston Causeway – Birthplace of the

	Santa Fe Trail – Reminiscent of early days on Santa Fe – The Wallapai, location, legends, etc. – Grand Canyon Arizona, History – A Deserted Village, San Marcial, NM Flood in 1929 – The Infant Santa Fe – Development of the Texas & Pacific Railway
D	Scott Special, Record Breaking Run – Stories centering around Railway Stations: Slain by Lions in Heart of Chicago ; A Voice from Long Ago ; Married by Telegraph ; Five Slain at Kansas City Station ; Old Santa Fe Station (Los Angeles) May be Just a Depot, But It's Seen Better Days . – George Washington and the West – General Laws of the State of Texas (passed at session of the 15 th Legislature 1876 – Atlantic & Pacific Railroad- Correspondence between Col. Nutt, F.A. Tritle, C.P. Huntington, Col W.B. Strong, I.J. Gosper, F.W. Smith – Brief History of AT&SF Railway Mileage in Southern California, Originating with California Southern Railroad and California Central Railway – Who Lost Any Money in Santa Fe Reorganization of 1895? – When the Santa Fe was Built Through Illinois – Air Brakes (Westinghouse) – New York Central Railroad – Pennsylvania Railroad – Southern Pacific Co. – The AT&SF System
G	Recent irrigation development in California – Extract from the Life and writings of Abraham Lincoln – California Central Railway Co. initial trip, Timetable dated August 11, 1888 (Los Angeles to San Diego) – Chronology of early development of Fred Harvey service. – Historical sketch of the Buffalo & Northwestern Railroad – Muroc, California, originally Yucca, Santa Fe Deluxe Trains, Extra Fare – Sandia, New Mexico – California & Oregon Railroad – California Central Railroad – Rates, Extract from Annual Report of December 31, 1888 – First through train to reach California 1886 – GC&SF contract dated 1886, transferring control of GC&SF to AT&SF – AT&SF Statement of Officers , Form 598, 1891 to 1895 – AT&SF Public relations release complete Dieselization on Santa Fe – Chicago' 119 th Birthday